

FLOREX 2026 Preliminary Exhibit List

Frame Count	Title	Description
10	Hawaiian Postal Cards to Germany 1892-1900	The exhibit provides glimpses into daily life for Germans living in and traveling through Hawaii, as well as some firsthand accounts of historical events.
9	Cuba Postal Stationery 1902-1958	A comprehensive exhibit of postal stationery from the Republic era.
1	Ship Island, Mississippi Postal Markings 1861-1865	Study of Ship Island postal markings, rates and usage between 1861-1865
1	The 13¢ Presidents and Triskaidekaphobia	An analysis of the need for, but avoidance of, a 13¢ stamp, and the bad luck of the presidents who appeared on it.
1	Postal History of the siege of Mafeking during the Boer War	Covers, Postcards and Maps will be used to tell the story of the siege of Mafeking.
4	Iceland's "Number-in-Circle" Cancels	Exhibit documents the use, development, mobility and rarity of Iceland's Breifhirding "Number-in-Circle" cancels, emphasizing their role in identifying remote postal activity
7	The Sage of the Icelandic Horse	A Philatelic and Cultural Study of the Icelandic Horse through stamps, cancels, cachets and postcards.
2	US Navy Ships in Haitian Ports - The Early Years	Exhibit displays naval postal history with postmarks from ships visiting Haitian Ports 1908-1918.
10	The Eagle Has Landed - The First Priority Mail Stamp	The exhibit studies the first priority mail stamp on first day and usage, celebrating the 20th anniversary of the moon landing.
10	Joint Issues With the United States	The first day cover exhibit explores the first 30 joint issues with the US from 1959 - 1994 and is the reference collection for the topic.
1	Design, Essays, Proofs, and production for the Lexington - Concord issue of 1925	One, two and three cent stamps that commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the beginning of the American Revolution.
10	Hawaiian Typeset Preprinted Postal Cards 1882-1900	Through pre printed cards, the exhibit will show Hawaii's cultural diversity, how extensively they were used, and their value as an inexpensive medium.
2	German Semi-Official Airmail	Early German experiments flying the mail

4	The Postal History and Operation of the Overland Mail Company Founded by John Butterfield, 1858-1864	Documents the transformation of transcontinental mail from ocean steamship to overland stage.
5	Letters to the Stars!	The history of Hollywood fan mail, from the silent era to the modern day.
8	The Barranquilla Pictorial Issue of Columbia 1902-1903	Development of the Barranquilla Pictorial Issue
1	Leominster, Mass. - Provisional Postage Due and Instructional Labels	An exhibit of postmaster-issued postage due and auxiliary labels that presaged the government postage due labels by 25 years.
8	Evolution and Impact of Blood's Local Post: 1842 - 1862	Introducing many postal innovations, Blood's thrived among intense Philadelphia competition producing America's only one-cent market for city mail service for 11 years.
4	Carpatho-Ukraine	Postal History 1730-2022
1	Securing Quinine for the Armed Forces: Cinchona Missions of World War II; Columbia and Ecuador (1942-1945)	US Military organized scientist to locate South American quinine sources after Japan's occupation of Java severed Allied supplies of critical anti-malarial drug.
8	Hubert Wilkins - Australian Pole to Pole Pioneer	Exhibit shows the life and polar explorations of Sir Herbert Wilkins.
5	The First 40 Years of the Airline KLM 1919-1959	Exhibit documents the contribution KLM made in pioneering and expansion of new air routes and airmail transportation.
1	The Struggle for Irish Independence from Great Britain 1916-1921	Exhibit shows the social, economic, and political impacts of Ireland's 5 year armed struggle for independence.
1	The Norman Invasion of Ireland 1169-1219	Exhibit shows the first 50 years of the English-Norman invasion of Ireland.
1	The Insurrection Issues of Laos from 1961-63 and 1974-76	A one frame study of stamps issued in 1961 by the "Neutralist" alternative government of Laos and the 1974 Communist Patriot Lao issues.
3	Military Travel Permit Stamps	Allied military government travel permit stamps used on civilian documents for entry, exit and transfer of Germany and Austria primarily, but also Trieste.